

CANDY CAMPBELL BIO

Candy Campbell, DNP, RN, CNL, CEP, CVP, FNAP, international speaker, award winning actor, author, and filmmaker, works with individuals and corporations to improve interprofessional communication, leadership, and team development.

Campbell has been a professional actor since her first international commercials in the mid-1970's. She has performed on stages in four countries, appeared in film, network TV, voice-overs, and commercials. She cofounded an improv and stand-up comedy troupe in the San Francisco area and has taught improv to all ages and stages since 1995.

Her latest books are extensions of her doctoral work done at Stanford's LPCH, about how to solve the problem of interprofessional miscommunication.

The series of four on the subject have been/will be published by Business Expert Press in conjunction with Harvard Business Publishing

- Improv to Improve Healthcare: A System for Creative Problem-Solving (2021)
- 2- Improv to Improve Your Leadership Team: Tear Down Walls and Build Bridges (2022)
- 3- Improv to Improve Your Communication (TBA)
- 4- Improv to Improve Your Self-Confidence (TBA)

Her third solo show (and book) is a character portrayal of Florence Nightingale,

She is a retired academic, having served as an Assistant Professor in the Graduate School of Nursing and Health Professions at the University of San Francisco.

Tear Down Walls and Build Bridges

TEAM Building For ALL Professionals

Take your team from 'Yikes' to 'Yippee'

Since the pandemic, people are RETHINKING their lives and making conscious choices about how to spend their time. According to top researchers, one of the main reasons people are thinking of quitting (or actually quitting) their job is a feeling of not belonging in the workplace.

What the world needs now is a tool to facilitate a culture of inclusion and effective communication amongst teams.

Tear Down Walls and Build Bridges

This work is seriously fun, and serious business! Candy's Inter Professional Communication (IPC) workshops feature the proven adult education tool, applied improv, where participants learn methods to connect, collaborate, create with others. The result? Enriched team communication, increased workplace safety, increased customer/client satisfaction, and employees who STAY because you have such a great place to work!

IMPROV to IMPROVE

Create a safe place to learn and grow.

Turn fear into trust
Turn worry into confidence
Turn negativity into cooperation
Turn problems into solutions
Turn stress into spontaneity
Turn ho-hum to fun
Turn yikes to yippee!

Tear Down Walls and Build Bridges Team Building

This training is unique in a sea of look-alike, bore-you-to-death communication programs. Applied improvisational exercises have been used to provoke innovation in business since the early 90s. Here's a tool to teach mental agility and design-thinking! Learn how to connect spontaneously, flex creatively, and advance your Emotional Intelligence with proven results with teams of all sorts.

Candy Campbell, DNP, RN, CNL, FNAP has taught improv to all ages for > 25 years, to both private and corporate clients. Her experience includes more than 30 years as an actor, director, speech coach, and nurse.
